AIRSTREAM® INTERSTATE IS THE LEADING TYPE B DIESEL MOTORHOME FOR SIXTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Jackson Center, Ohio (March 15, 2018) – Airstream, announced today that the brand’s Interstate model is the number one selling Type B diesel motorhome in the U.S. for the sixth consecutive year, according to Statistical Surveys Inc.’s Class B Diesel Share Summary, which details total sales of diesel class B models. The Airstream Interstate captured a 30 percent market share in the diesel class B segment for 2017.

“The quality of the travel experience offered by the Interstate is unparalleled, and our incredible dealers across the country continue to do an exceptional job showcasing the Interstate line,” said Airstream President and CEO Bob Wheeler. “It’s no surprise that the Interstate continues to lead the diesel segment, and with such a strong dealer network we look forward to continued growth in this market segment.”

Airstream’s Interstate touring coach family, which added a special Tommy Bahama special edition last year, offers discerning travelers all the luxuries and comforts of home. Travelers enjoy more than 50 best-in-class features that all come standard, some of which include Corian® countertops, handcrafted cabinetry, marine-grade plank-style flooring and an advanced Mercedes-Benz safety system. The Interstate has a starting MSRP of $165,878.

“Being on top six years running is no small feat and we could not be more impressed by our dealer network for all of their success and hard work,” said Airstream Touring Coach General Manager Tim Garner. “We’d like to congratulate and thank our partners on this record-breaking retail year.”
